

Torrance Flier Guests on TV

Thomas E. Green of 3317 Winlock Rd. guested recently on Art Linkletter's "House Party" in Hollywood.

Linkletter's question was "What is the best bargain you ever made?"

"In 1936 I bought a tenth interest in a Cub airplane," replied Green. "I've been flying ever since. I'm now a captain of a Boeing 707 jet."

Green received an autographed copy of Linkletter's book "The Secret World of Kids."

Highway Deaths Down 5% from Last Year

Traffic fatalities during the first quarter of 1960 are almost 5% lower than in the same period last year, Bradford M. Crittenden, commissioner of the California Highway Patrol, disclosed today.

IN HOLLYWOOD—Thomas E. Green of Torrance appears on Art Linkletter's TV program.

South Bay Art Group Show Set for June 17-26

Southern California artists are being invited to show their work in the South Bay Art Association's art showing June 17-26.

The show is an annual event for the South Bay Art Association and being held in conjunction with the 1960 Neptune Days Marinarmas. The show will be held inside the buildings directly opposite the south entrance to the horseshoe pier.

Artists will compete in a juried show with more than $100 in prizes going to the winner.

Two other activities are being planned. The first is a sidewalk show during the two weekends and seven nights. Artists are being requested to be prepared to paint and demonstrate different techniques.

An auction of specially prepared work is being scheduled for Sunday, June 26 artists will enter paintings, sculpture, and other works for auction.

Parade Opens Season at Pacific Ocean Park

Clowns, animals, mopet stars of television, antique automobiles, and youth bands thrilled thousands of onlookers along Ocean Promenade in Santa Monica during the Children's Sea Circus Parade, which opened the 1960 season of Pacific Ocean Park Saturday.

Following the parade, the amusement mecca was opened to the public under POP's new pay-one-price policy, which admits visitors to all rides and exhibits in the park with purchase of one ticket.

The park will be open daily through Easter and weekends thereafter until May 30 when the summer program schedule will be announced.

GUEST—Joan Caulfield will be spotlighted as guest star on hour Bob Hope show Wednesday night.

Work on Broadway at Alondra to Start

County road crews this week are scheduled to begin improving Broadway in the vicinity of Alondra (161st St.) Blvd. Improvement of Broadway, Alondra, and other major feeder roads in the area was mapped out by Supervisor Kenneth Hahn and County Road Commissioner N. H. Templin during a recent inspection tour of the area.
